

Contractor of the Year 2014-2015

The prestigious Contractor of the Year award is recognized as a symbol of excellence throughout the plumbing industry. It is presented to the PHCC plumbing contractor who best represents the ideals of the profession. Nominees are judged on professionalism, merchandising and management skills, innovative plumbing techniques, trade involvement and community service. The 2014-2015 Contractor of the Year is:

Ralph Phillips

Phillips Plumbing

PHCC of Alameda & Contra Costa Counties

Phillips Plumbing has been in business since 1928 and a member of the PHCC since 1967. Started by his grandfather in El Cerrito California and continued by his father Lloyd, Ralph took over the business in 1979 and looks forward to turning the business over to the 4th generation, his son Brian. Ralph enjoys being a small shop with a family touch, and his relationships with his customers. His tireless devotion to the industry, his PHCC association and his fellow contractors is well documented. He served on the board of directors for 20 years including a term as President, continues to serve on several committees and is deeply committed to the ideals of PHCC.

